

3 (Sem-5/CBCS) ENG HE 1

2 0 2 1

(Held in 2022)

ENGLISH

Paper : ENG-HE-5016

(Popular Literature)

(Honours Elective)

Full Marks : 80

Time : 3 hours

The figures in the margin indicate full marks for the questions

1. Answer the following questions : 1×10=10

- (a) What is - the nationality of Hercule Poirot?
- (b) What is the name of the house owned by Roger Ackroyd?
- (c) Who forgets to deliver Ambedkar's letter to his father telling him of their plan to visit?

(2)

Or

(For Visually Challenged Students)

When did Ambedkar write his autobiographical sketches compiled in Autobiographical Notes?

- (d) What was the colour of the White Rabbit's eyes?
- (e) Who is Dinah?
- (f) What is the name of Harry Potter's snowy owl?
- (g) "Everything is simple, if you arrange the facts methodically." Who says this and to whom?
- (h) Who is Hagrid?
- (i) "... [A]nd of course I knew you'd be just the same, just as strange, just as _ as _ abnormal" Who says this and about whom?
- (j) Why does the Queen of Hearts order the execution of Alice after their initial conversation?

(3)

2. Answer the following questions : 2×5=10

- (a) "That depends a good deal on where you want to get to." Who says this and to whom and in what context?
- (b) What is Ambedkar's view on the attitudes of people belonging to various religions towards untouchability?

Or

(For Visually Challenged Students)

What, for Ambedkar, is the value of education in the face of social and political discrimination?

- (c) "It takes a great deal of bravery to stand up to our enemies, but just as much to stand up to our friends." Who says this and in what context?
- (d) What does the word 'Muggle' refer to and what characteristics is it associated with?
- (e) Who is Ralph Paton and why is he suspected to murdering Roger Ackroyd?

(4)

3. Answer any four of the following questions :

5×4=20

- (a) Write a short note on Roger Ackroyd in The Murder of Roger Ackroyd.
- (b) Write a short note on the use of fantasy and nonsense in Alice in Wonderland.
- (c) How and to what end is the motif of blackmail used in The Murder of Roger Ackroyd?
- (d) Write a short note on the Queen of Hearts in Alice in Wonderland.
- (e) Write a short note on the Dursleys in Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone.
- (f) Write a short note on the use of water as a motif/trope in Bhimayana.

Or

(For Visually Challenged Students)

What does Ambedkar say of the Mahar Community to which he belonged? Write a short critical note.

(5)

4. Answer any four of the following questions :

10×4=40

- (a) Examine how the coming-of-age theme is explored in Alice in Wonderland and Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone, taking into account the differing contexts of the two texts.
- (b) Write a critical essay comparing the representation of the child's perspective in Alice in Wonderland and Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone.
- (c) How is the form of the graphic novel used to highlight the issue of untouchability in particular and the Dalit experience in general in Bhimayana : Experiences of Untouchability? Discuss using relevant illustrations from the text.

Or

(For Visually Challenged Students)

How does Ambedkar chart his route towards an identity of his own through his experiences of untouchability? Discuss, using relevant instances from his Autobiographical Notes.

(6)

- (d) Examine the intersections of caste and gender in Bhimayana, using examples from the text.

Or

(For Visually Challenged Students)

Discuss critically, the distinctive characteristics of Ambedkar's Autobiographical Notes that make this work a significant contribution to the genre of autobiography. Justify your answer with relevant illustrations from the text.

- (e) Critically examine Carroll's use of humour in Alice in Wonderland, taking into account the huge popularity enjoyed by the books among readers across generations.
- (f) Discuss the distinctive elements or characteristics of detective fiction using The Murder of Roger Ackroyd as a representative example. Would you see this novel merely as 'popular literature' ?

(7)

- (g) What do you understand by the term 'popular literature'? Can it be distinguished from canonical literature? Give a considered response, using the texts prescribed in this paper.
- (h) Write a critical note on the use of the first-person point-of-view/the use of a first-person narrative in The Murder of Roger Ackroyd.
